Thursday Night

Devotional was led by Sister Florence Bradley and Sister A. D. Smith. Scripture lesson read from St. John, 8th chapter. Prayer by Sister Ada Knight, "We witness the power of the Holy Spirit in the meeting." After which the service was in the hands of the minister, Eld. W. M. King, who sang hymn 404, "Father, I Stretch My Hands To Thee." We were then favored with a welcome address by Sister Sarah Baker. Eld. E. F. Johnson gave one of his spirituals, "You may look for me, I'll be there," and selected his text from the 19th chapter of 1 Kings and 9th verse words, "What doeth thou here." He preached a powerful sermon. Oh, how our hearts burned while he talked to us.

The finance solicitors raised an offering of $2.75.

The president made her announcements. After which the Committee on Arrangements assigned the delegates to their respective homes. Benediction was pronounced.

Friday Morning

The session was opened by singing hymn 631, "A Few More Years Shall Roll." Scripture lesson from the 12th chapter of Rom. by Eld. J. H. Frazier. Prayer offered by Bro. Joe Smith. Sister D. A. Stephens sang, "I Am Going Through." After which the president announced the house open for business.

Proposed and agreed that the proceedings of the previous day's session be read. Read and carried. We then had some very helpful remarks from Eld. W. G. Best.

The roll of members and delegates was called. Quite a number of members being late, came forward and stated their reason for their lateness. It was proposed and agreed that they be excused. Carried.

The roll of missions was called.

The Committee on Divine Worship made their report as follows: Sister President, and members, we recommend Eld. B. C. Whitfield to preach at 11 o'clock; Eld. P. R. Mewborn, alternate.

SISTER CHARITY BATTLE,
SISTER AILY DARDEN,
SISTER A. D. SMITH, Committee.

Adjourned from business for preaching at 11 o'clock.

Service was opened by singing, "I Heard The Voice Of Jesus Say." Scripture lesson was read from the 15th chapter of Corinthinas. Prayer by Bro. John C. Davis. The supervisor arose, singing, "Nearer My God To Thee," and introduced the speaker of the hour, Eld. B .C. Whitfield, who selected his text from Matthew 28:11; also Luke 22. He preached a very good sermon. Then a spiritual was sung by Eld. W. R. Parks, "Jesus Has Made It Alright."

The finance solicitors raised an offering of $4.15. Benediction was pronounced. The committee on arrangements prepared dinner.

Friday Afternoon

The session was opened by singing, "And Are We Yet Alive," and prayer was offered. The president then announced the house in order for business. We first heard a few remarks concerning the broadness of the convention by Eld. H. A. Whitfield, followed by Eld B. C. Whitfield. After which Eld. B. C. Whitfield stated to the convention why some of the work was not in the minutes and the cause of them being so very late coming out. He also begged pardon for the errors on his part. Then Eld. P. H. Howell was called for remarks. He spoke some very encouraging words. Sister Callie Isler, Sister Nancy Howard, Sister Mary Otis, Sister Hester Baker, and Eld. P. R. Mewborn, all made some very timely remarks in behalf of the work for the future. Eld. W. G. Best then presented Mr. James E. Baker, of the Baptist church, who was extended welcome with us. He also made a very interesting talk on behalf of the convention at large. Eld. H. A. Whitfield offered a few words of response. The president then ordered the delegation to rise in honor of them.

Report on Education

Sister president and members: We beg leave to report. We recommend that all money raised in the rally to be for educational purposes, and that we shall make arrangements for an educational program, for our purpose is to foster the call in training our men and women for Christian service, that this convention may go to success. Our goal is to press forward to the mark of a high calling.

Saturday Morning

The session was opened by singing by Sister D. A. Stephens, "When I Can Read My Title Clear." Scripture lesson was read from the fifth chapter of Matthew by the president. Prayer by Elder P. R. Mewborn. Second song, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." After this a Bible verse was given by each member of the convention. Oh, how our hearts did burn while we listened to the words of Jesus.

The house was then announced in order for business.

Proposed and agreed that the minutes of the previous day's session be read. They were read and adopted.

The members that were late in arriving were brought forward. After rendering a lawful excuse they were excused.

Elder J. F. Cox of Trenton was called for to make some remarks. He gave us some helpful thoughts. A rising vote of thanks was extended him.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, it was proposed and agreed to extend the time for fifteen minutes. We then adjourned from business for Eulogy Service in behalf of the eulogy of Sister Senus Haywood. There was a beautiful bunch of flowers given in honor of her by Sister Easter Mingle.

The service was opened by singing hymn No. 639, "Asleep in Jesus." Scripture lesson was read from the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians, verse 39. Prayer by Bro. John C. Davis. Elder B. C. Whitfield led in singing, "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." After this Eulogy was read by Sister Daisy I Parks. Solo by Sister Mattie Davis, "O, What Are They Doing There Now." We were then favored with a paper by Sister Lizzie King. After listening to a great many things, Elder B. C. Whitfield sang a solo. A few remarks were made by Elder W. N. Parks. Then the service was closed by words of memory by the president, which read like this: Sister Senus Haywood is not dead. The woman of our affection has gone to that great convention above. She no longer needs our poor protection, where Christ Himself still doth rule. Day after day, we think what she is doing in those bright realms of air, day after day, her tender steps pursuing, behold she grows more fair.

By death comes life,
By loss comes gain;
The joy for the tear,
The peace for the pain.

The finance solicitors then raised an offering of $4.00. After this we had adjournment for dinner.

Saturday Afternoon

The session was opened by singing, "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." The president then announced the house in order for business. After this

Elder E. F. Johnson delivered an address of thanks in behalf of the community. Response by Elder W. M. King, after which the president proceeded to call the remainder of the committees which reported as follows:

Proposed and agreed that the reports of the Missionary Workers be received and also that they be continued for the ensuing year.

Letters From Absent Members

1197 Penn St., Camden, N. Y.
Sept. 16, 1930.

To the Goldsboro-Raleigh W. H. M. Convention of the Disciples of Christ in Eastern North Carolina: With greeting and love to you all, I regret very much that I cannot meet you in person this year but in spirit I am with you all. I have been on a 10 day's fast, ending Sept. 17th, remembering you in my prayers to God for great success. As you all know that my heart is in the work and if I can be of any service to you at any time, I will gladly give my best.

Sincerely your sister in Christ,

SISTER ANNIE PARKS.

Fayetteville, N. C.,
Sept. 14, 1930.

Sister president, officers and members of the W. H. M. Convention: We, the sisters of Pleasant Grove church, beg to report to you that we are getting along fine and we beg the prayers of you all. Would have been glad to have sent a delegate but could not this time. We are representing by letter. You have our prayers and good wishes for success.

Yours in Christ,

SISTER MAMIE McLAIN, Pres.

Then it was proposed and agreed to settle her indebtedness.

Annual Report of General Officers of the Convention

The president stated that the Lord had blessed us to meet again and urged all to continue in the same love and union as here before. She insisted that we do more missionary work that we may have better success in the future. To the Field Workers, she gave some very helpful information in behalf of their work. She gave many more encouraging words.

The vice-president being absent, the secretaries also thanked the convention for the honor confered upon them and agreed, by the help of the Lord, they would do their best in the work.

The supervisor then thanked the Lord for the year and for the work that we had accomplished and asked that we all press forward, "In the mark of a high calling in Christ Jesus."

Proposed and agreed that this report be received and remain for further consideration.
